PRIVACY STATEMENT

Twin Peaks Hospitality BV places great value on protecting the privacy of its guests and of visitors to this website. Your personal information will be treated with the utmost care and secured in accordance with the Dutch Data Protection Act (Wet bescherming persoonsgegevens).

This website makes use of cookies. A cookie is a small, simple file which is sent to your computer with pages of this website and which your browser saves on the hard drive of your computer. These cookies are used to keep track of which pages you visit in order to create an overview of the online behaviour of visitors to our website. The cookies contain no personal information and are used for marketing purposes only. You can change the settings on your browser to refuse or remove cookies. Please check the instructions for use of your browser for more information.

The American company Google places a cookie on your computer with our website as part of its 'Analytics' service. We use this service to keep track of and receive reports on how visitors use the website. Google can pass this information on to third parties in cases where Google is legally required to do so or when these third parties process the information on Google's behalf. We cannot influence this in any way.

The information gathered by Google is anonymized as much as possible. Your IP address is emphatically not gathered. Google sends the information it collects to servers and stores it there. By using this website, you give permission to Google to process the information gathered.

Third party advertisers can use cookies for the purpose of tracking so that visitors can be shown targeted adverts on third party sites. This form of advertising happens completely anonymously. It is not linked to any private data. By using this website, you give permission to third party advertisers to process the information gathered.
